Karnataka
One state. Many worlds.

INTRODUCTION/ OVERVIEW

KARNATAKA

The South Indian State of Karnataka is flanked by Andhra Pradesh and Telangana in the east, the Arabian Sea in the west, Maharashtra and Goa in the north and northwest, and the states of Kerala and Tamil Nadu in the south. Karnataka is a land unparalleled in diversity; be it Heritage, Culture, Nature, Beaches or Wildlife. Karnataka is primarily known for its Heritage destinations and its Wildlife/ National Parks. Apart from that, it is also famous for its magical hill stations, spectacular waterfalls, pilgrimage centers and a 320km long coastline dotted with unspoiled beaches. Thus, making it an ideal place for a traveller with diverse interests.

A land known for its silks, spices and sandalwood, Karnataka adds up as an experience to remember for a lifetime. Tourism in Karnataka stands out with its diverse offerings that include wildlife & national parks, monuments & heritage sites, beaches and pilgrimage sites. Yet another notable point is that tourist attractions in Karnataka are located at geographically extreme ends which interestingly make silicon capital Bengaluru, the focal point of tour itineraries.

The state of Karnataka over the years has contributed towards being a large part of the India's ever-growing tourism arrival figures, both from outside India as well as being a destination to be among India's biggest domestic travel segment.

Bengaluru

Bengaluru is a city of contrasts, going by several aliases: India's Silicon Valley, Pub City, Shopper's Paradise, Garden City, Air-Conditioned City, Gourmet's Delight to the very recent "most dynamic city of the world". The city not only plays host to several international IT companies, reputed educational and research institutions, public sector enterprises and defence organisations, but also lays claim to being the hub of India's emerging biotech industry.

One of the fastest growing cities in the Asia Pacific region especially in the last decade has attracted several Fortune 500 companies like IBM, Microsoft, Intel, Apple Computers, Hewlett Packard, Compaq - Digital, Wrigley's, Siemens, Bosch Group, etc. With an advent of a strong IT focus.

Geographically, Bangalore is located almost at the centre of South India. Thus, making it a definite gateway to South India. With a world-class airport and improved road connectivity, Bangalore is an ideal hub for visitors who want to travel to the many hill stations and coastal towns of South India.

WHY BENGALURU

Located 949m above sea level, Bengaluru enjoys a salubrious climate throughout the year, thus earning the name Air-Conditioned City

- The city boasts vast gardens, parks, tree-lined avenues, a profusion of flowering trees, lakes and parks, earning it the sobriquet "Garden City"
- A rich cultural heritage, historic monuments, cultural centres, traditional arts and crafts stores, theatre, exotic cuisine and friendly people - the city has plenty to offer
- One of South India's best golfing destinations with 8 golf courses in the state and 4 world-class courses in Bangalore alone
- The emerging hub for wellness tourism, almost all systems of medicine are offered hereby some of India's best and trusted wellness brands
- Bangalore is India's emerging MICE city, with some of the top events in various sectors of industry, being hosted here.
- National and International connectivity with over 20 international airlines operating into Bangalore
- Presence of national and international hotel chains
